REPORTED INCIDENTS OF SOMALI PIRATE ATTACKS AND HIJACKINGS IN THE GULF OF ADEN FOR 2008

The map illustrates reported incidents of piracy in the Gulf of Aden. It shows the location of hijackings, attempted hijackings, and failed hijackings. The map also indicates the presence of EU Naval Convoys, the deployment of military forces, and the areas where piracy is prevalent. The map includes information on the number of hijackings and attempted hijackings, as well as the number of successful and failed attempts. The map also highlights the significant number of reported incidents in the Gulf of Aden, indicating the ongoing threat of piracy in the region.

The map also includes a summary of reported pirate incidents for 2008, showing the number of hijackings, attempted hijackings, and failed attempts. It provides a visual representation of the piracy threat in the Gulf of Aden, with a focus on the Somali coast and the region's waterways. The map is updated regularly to reflect the latest information on piracy incidents in the Gulf of Aden.

The map is produced by UNOSAT, a satellite applications program of UNITAR, the United Nations Institute for Training and Research. It is updated every 7 days and is available on the UNOSAT website.